

Difference in the area of the Mandelbrot for different population sizes as function of the number of iterations

